

Main data table containing columns for document number, date, subject, and budget details. The table is organized into multiple columns, with the first column listing various government programs and projects, and subsequent columns providing their respective budget allocations and implementation dates.